MINISTER FINED $10 AND COST

Rev. Van Horn Tried for Reckless Driving—Files Appeal

AFTER one of the hardest fought and longest argued cases ever tried in the municipal court, Police Judge Miller this afternoon assessed a fine of $10 and costs against Rev. H. E. Van Horn, pastor of the First Christian church, for reckless driving. The charge was preferred against the minister after he struck a boy named Lee Harrison with his automobile last Saturday evening, throwing the boy to the pavement and breaking his arm. Rev. Van Horn's testimony showed that he was driving south on Harvey street, and turned east on First street, violating a city ordinance by taking the nearest turn instead of making a military turn beyond the center of the intersection of the streets. The boy was riding north and was near the northeast corner of the crossing when the collision occurred. A large audience was on hand to hear the testimony Thursday afternoon. Judge Miller deferred his decision until he had time to thoroughly investigate the wording of the ordinance covering reckless driving.

The boy was undoubtedly in the right place, and the minister was obviously in the wrong place," said the magistrate. "The ordinance was clearly meant to guard against just such cases as this. If Rev. Van Horn had been driving according to the law the accident would not have occurred.

The evidence showed that the minister stopped and inquired if the boy was hurt after striking him, and later sent a physician to him. Notice of appeal was filed by J. S. Estes, Rev. Van Horn's attorney.

BULGARS DIVIDED

Leaders of All Parties Agree that Attitude of Government Is Perilous—Will Issue Appeal to World

PARIS, Sept. 17.—A dispatch of the Balkan Agency from Bucharest says the leaders of all the opposition parties in Bulgaria have decided to publish an appeal to the country explaining the international political situation as affecting that nation. The appeal will be made on the ground that under present circumstances the attitude taken by the government is perilous. The Bulgarian government's decision to make terms with Turkey has met with considerable opposition.

ATHENS, Greece, Sept. 17.—There are indications that the relations between Greece and Bulgaria are improving. In the most influential circles the conviction is said now to have been reached that neutrality must be the only policy for Greece.

BUCHAREST, Romania, Sept. 17.—"The allies know that in no case may they count on Bulgaria's help on the Gallipoli peninsula," says the semi-official independent Romanian in an article dealing with the Turco-Bulgarian agreement.

At the Theatres

THE OVERHOLSER

Little Emma Hunting and her play ers are now having the last rehearsals of "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm," a charming comedy drama that will be given next week, beginning Sunday afternoon. The little star will interpret the role of "Rebecca," a part new to her, but whose sunshiny character will adapt itself perfectly to her personality. Her exhibition of "Jerry" will be given tonight, Saturday matinee and night.

THE EMPRESS

Saturday the Empress will present a picture of rare thrill intensity, "The Rajah's Sacrifice." In it the bestial animals, ferocious and mean, are used with startling effect. "Pool Sharks," a new comedy with a new star, W. C. Fields of the Ziegfeld Follies, also will be given, as will other photoplays. Wilting, Bentley and Waring will repeat their tremendous devilry of the last two days.

THE MET

Owing to the extraordinary demand for "The White Sister," with Viola Allen in the leading part, the Met theater deemed it necessary to open an hour earlier today in order to give a greater number of shows to accommodate its patrons. The Met will open again at nine o'clock in the morning Saturday. "The Tenor," a three-part oriental drama, is also featured with Hobart Henley the star. A one-part comedy completes the two-reel program, entitled, "Billie Now a Medico." "The Broken Column" was delayed in transit and will be shown at the Met starting Sunday.

THE LYRIC

Vaudville artists of high rank are on the new bills at the Lyric. Crighton Brothers and Belmont are extracting big applause with their rustic "Midtown Minstrels," and the great "Howard" Scotch Venturiola is surely a peer in his profession. "Conseil Pedro," the man monk, is a dead-game sport fond of Turkish cigarettes. The Lyric moviegram offers "Romance in a Carte" and "Moustaches and Bonos," both comedies of high pressure.

RAISE PRAIRIE; ALSO TEXAS CO

Increase of Assessment Valuation on Two Big Oil Companies Amounts to $1,366,000

UPON motion of Governor R. L. Williams, the state board of equalization late Thursday evening raised the valuation of the Texas oil and gas company for assessment from $5,750,000 to $6,116,000 for the year 1915.

This action immediately followed a raise in the valuation of the Texas oil company upon motion of Secretary of State J. L. Lyon, from $4,250,000 to $5,250,000.

The equalization board this morning confirmed its work among omitted properties. Several tank car line corporations having failed to make reports on the operation of their cars in Oklahoma, the tentative assessment of $1,000 against each was made permanent.

The money derived from this source, said the governor, "will go far toward the support of boys and girls sent to the feeble-minded institution at Enid. I have applications almost every day for admission to that institution, and it is a difficult matter to refuse them. Under a law enacted by the last legislature I have the authority to send them to the Enid home for the feeble-minded. We can get the needed money in this way."

State Treasurer W. C. Alexander asked how taxes collected in this manner would be distributed to the counties to which the governor referred. Taxes secured from these corporations will be proportioned among the counties of the state.

WHITE SEAL AGAIN

Proprietors of Bottling Works on East Main Charged With Violating the Liquor Law

Information was filed Friday by the county attorney's office charging the White Seal Bottling Works, of 109-11 East Main street, with manufacturing a place where intoxicating liquors were sold. The information states that James McCabe and Arthur Thilleford, proprietors of the place, manufactured and kept for sale imitations of intoxicating liquors which contained more than 12 per cent of alcohol, the amount prescribed by law.

RESERVES DECISION

Mandamus suit brought by the Bankers' Life Insurance company of Lincoln, Neb., to compel the Oklahoma state insurance commission to approve certain policies was argued in District Judge E. D. Oldfield's court late last evening. Judge Oldfield announced that he would decide the matter Monday.

LOST WILL CASE AGAIN AGITATED

Pottawatomie County Judge Subject to Application for Citation for Contempt

WITHIN the next six days briefs will be filed with the state supreme court in the matter of citation of County Judge Hal Johnson of Shawnee for alleged contempt of court in an alleged attempt to distribute the Enos Nichols estate. The citation was filed in court last Saturday by Attorneys H. H. Smith, A. M. Baldwin and A. J. Carlisle, proponents of the alleged lost will of Enos Nichols. These attorneys presented the matter before the supreme court one day this week, wherein Judge Johnson was represented by Attorneys F. H. Rely, J. D. Lytton, T. G. Cutlip and Mark Goode, of Shawnee, and E. H. Hastings, of Oklahoma City.

Oral arguments were made, and the parties were instructed to submit briefs within the following ten days. A mandatory application in the same relation was referred to Special Judge Wheeler.

Start $14,510 Suit

In the superior court of Pottawatomie county suit was filed Wednesday in behalf of Nellie Fisher and Mary Davis, beneficiaries under the purported lost will of the late Enos Nichols, for a total of $14,510 against W. S. Search, special administrator of the estate of Enos Nichols; Willard Barnett, administrator with will annexed; M. C. Fleming, administrator with will annexed; Alex Fisher, general administrator; S. C. Vinson, purported general administrator; J. Warren Davis, administrator of the estate of the late Harriet Nichols Cook; and two surety companies. The petition alleges about $200,000 of the estate are in the hands of Messrs. Search and Vinson, of which $8,517 is due Mrs. Fisher and $76,340 due Mrs. Davis.

The suit is based upon the decision of Special Judge Outelt of the county court sustaining the claims of the proponents of purported lost will on October 15, 1914. It alleges that the findings of Judge Outelt have never been properly appealed from nor reversed by any court of competent jurisdiction. The suit is brought by H. H. Smith.

In the matter of the citation of county Judge for contempt of the supreme court the court yesterday permitted five days within which to file briefs.

PERSONAL INVITATION

Ponca City Send Emissaries to Press Hospitality Upon India Temple

The Wichita Indians with their patrol and band will attend the big ceremonial at Ponca City Oct. 25 on a special train. Seven coaches have been engaged. Indians promises 50 and Muskogee about the same while almost as many as the two combined will go from India Temple, Oklahoma City. A trophy for the best patrol is to be given in which all temples will compete. James Q. Louther and L. H.

Wells, both of Ponca City, brought the invitation to the Oklahoma City Shrine Thursday and were given an audience of a banner attendance from this city.

Robert W. Chambers reports the father of the heroine as smiling at the latter through his glasses. Rather difficult, but extremely interesting fact, we should say.

Quality in Lumber the First Consideration

When you buy lumber of us you'll get the same careful selection that we give a carpenter or contractor who knows the quality of lumber.

In building much depends on the proper selection of your lumber, such as strong, durable dimension; good, smooth siding that will take paint and hold it.

Flooring well manufactured that will lay close and matches perfectly.

We keep all these things in mind in selecting our stock, being particularly careful with the finishing lumber. It must be tight, even fiber and of a straight pleasing grain. We can recommend every piece for the finest work.

If you are going to build, there's a lot of things we can help you with that will greatly enhance the value of your home. We're at your service.
